Students planning to pursue this major MUST audition for the School of Music to be admitted to this degree program. Please carefully review the following important information and reminders. Click here for School of Music Audition and Application information.

If admitted to the program, the School of Music Academic Advisor will assist you in registering for your first semester courses during New Student Orientation in the summer.

In an effort to practice and familiarize yourself with the registration process, you will register for the course below using the step-by-step tutorial provided. You will be enrolled in your remaining courses during New Student Orientation. This is NOT your complete schedule.

Important Notes

Vocal Performance Concentrations Only: You will be required to complete two classes (6 s.h.) each of French, German, and a third foreign language of your choice (e.g. Spanish, Latin, Russian.) Click here and complete the Placement Tests for French, German, and your third choice of foreign language prior to New Student Orientation.

Because of the unique nature of coursework in the School of Music, (in terms of applied major and minor instruments as well as placement in theory, sight-singing, and ensembles), Music student schedules are NOT all the same. For this reason and other intricacies of the curriculum, it is critical you attend New Student Orientation to learn more about the structure of the program.

Once you begin the sequence of courses, you should plan to be enrolled for 4 years (8 semesters) to complete this degree. Music Performance majors typically take about 15-16 semester hours each fall and spring semester.

If you are bringing in transfer credits (Early College or Dual Enrollment) you must submit an official transcript from that institution to the ECU Undergraduate Admissions Office. If you have AP credit, you must have College Board submit your scores to the ECU Undergraduate Admissions Office.

Please check your ECU email account for information regarding academic advisor assignment. If you have not been contacted by an advisor, email advising@ecu.edu.
